2. Requirements and additional information

2.1. Recommended language skills

The sending institution, following the agreement with our institution, is responsible for providing support to its nominated candidates so that they can have the recommended language skills at the start of the study or teaching period.

Students choosing any courses offered by the Department of English and American Studies (KAA) must submit an international certificate of language proficiency (e.g. TOEFL, Cambridge, or other certificates to be approved by the KAA department coordinator).

| Type of mobility | Subject area | Language(s) of instruction | Recommended language of instruction level * |
|------------------------------|--------------|----------------------------|--|
| Student Mobility for Studies | | CS, EN, DE, ES | B2 (in exceptional cases upon agreement B1) |
| Staff Mobility for Teaching | | CS, EN, DE, ES | C1 |

* Level according to Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR), see www.europass.cedefop.europa.eu/en/resources/european-language-levels-cefr

For more details on the language of instruction recommendations, please refer to our course catalogue. For some subject areas (e.g. Sports) the language requirements may be different.

2.2. Guidelines

- Students must be nominated through PALACKÝ UNIVERSITY ONLINE MOBILITY APPLICATION SYSTEM (online nomination and application system). The institutional coordinator and the person responsible for student mobility at a partner institution will receive from the email address noreply_mobility@upol.cz information about the nomination procedure and access to the system every year in March when the nomination period for the new academic year is always open. In case the information email with the access link was not received, please contact the Office for Mobility at iro@upol.cz.
- As soon as the nomination is successfully submitted, each nominated student will receive unique access to on-line application.
- For information updates/possible changes please follow our web at www.international.upol.cz/en/exchange-programmes/im-an-exchange-student/news-general-information/
- In case of additional requirements regarding academic, organizational, or other aspects (e.g., students with special needs) please contact the respective incoming mobility coordinator.
- Incoming students are allowed to take courses in other study fields, but they are requested to take the majority (minimum of 60%) of courses in the study area mentioned in the inter-institutional agreement.
- Erasmus students (KA131) can submit their LA digitally via EWP or still traditionally as a scanned copy in case the partner institution has not started to use EWP.
- A list of coordinators responsible for signing LA is available at this link: <https://international.upol.cz/en/exchange-programmes/im-an-exchange-student/news-general-information/#c69001>

- Students are offered a Czech language course throughout the semester.
- Academic staff interested in a teaching visit at UP should contact the relevant department.
- Non-academic staff members interested in spending a training week at UP should contact the Institutional coordinator (yvona.vyhnankova@upol.cz). A proposal of the Mobility Agreement is also required.
- For information about provisions for students and staff with disabilities see: www.upol.cz/en/welcome-office/health-well-being

2.3. Calendar

2.3.1. Nomination and Application Deadlines

- Palacký University Olomouc uses an on-line nomination and application system. No additional information / paperwork is required via email or post. See the guidelines 2.2. above or UP web.
- Nominations and applications must reach our institution by:

| NOMINATION DEADLINES | |
|----------------------|--|
| Winter semester | May 15 (visa students) May 31 (non-visa students) |
| Summer semester | October 15 (visa students) October 31 (non-visa students) |

| APPLICATION DEADLINES | |
|-----------------------|---|
| Winter semester | May 31 (visa students) June 15 (non-visa students) |
| Summer semester | October 31 (visa students) November 15 (non-visa students) |

2.3.2. Decision Response

- Successful students should receive the Letter of Acceptance within five weeks after the application deadline via email. An approved LA is a condition for acceptance.

2.3.3. Arrival Dates and Orientation

- The students should plan their arrival for the weekend preceding the beginning of the Orientation Week or according to the official beginning of classes at a respected UP Faculty e.g. students of health sciences or medicine may start a week earlier. For more information see: www.international.upol.cz/en/exchange-programmes/im-an-exchange-student/news-general-information/#c69000.
- All students are expected to attend the Orientation programme. Dates and details of the Orientation Week are confirmed by email once the students have been accepted.

2.3.4. Transcripts of Records

- A Transcript of Records will be issued no later than 5 weeks after the assessment period has finished at our institution. The student will download it in the UP IS/STAG Portal ECTS/Arrivals. If a hard copy is needed, the student has to contact the respective UP Faculty coordinator.

3. Academic information

3.1. Course Catalogue

- Erasmus and Bilateral Agreement Exchange students are offered subjects/courses within the subject area they are admitted into, according to the Agreement signed between the institutions. In the course catalogue the available courses have a note „the course is available to a short-term student“. Students should always check the language of instruction when selecting a subject/course!
- www.stag.upol.cz/ects/ or www.international.upol.cz/en/exchange-programmes/im-an-exchange-student/news-general-information/#c69007

3.2. Number of courses/credits per semester

- Normal workload is 30 ECTS per semester.
- Students are required to take min 15 – 20 ECTS per semester.
- Erasmus International Credit mobility (KA171) students and all exchange students coming to the Faculty of Arts, Science, and Theology are required to take min 20 ECTS per semester.

3.3. Grading system

- Credit (R) - awarded after fulfilling academic requirements at the end of each semester, with no grade.
- Colloquium (R) - exam, graded only “passed” or “failed”, a percent evaluation of the student's academic performance can be requested from the teacher, and a conversion table available in the ToR can be used to set up a grade if necessary.
- Exam graded:
 - A – excellent
 - B – very good C – good
 - D – satisfactory E – sufficient
 - F – failed
- The value of local credits corresponds to ECTS credits.

4. Additional Information

4.1. Visa

- Palacký University Olomouc will provide visa support documents and assistance, when required, in securing visas for incoming and outgoing students/staff, according to the requirements of the Erasmus Charter for Higher Education. For updated information is recommended to contact the nearest Czech Embassy. In addition, information on visa requirements is available and regularly updated on the website mentioned below.
- Visa students may need 2-3 months to arrange a Czech visa. Students should request an embassy appointment as soon as Palacký University Olomouc confirms sending the visa docs to the student by post. Originals of the visa support documents must be handed over in person during the embassy appointment.
