

A Rhyme You Can See

Although I waited long enough I didn't really make it through The lady who lived in the sewage Was really stuck back in the New Age Is really all that you can hear A piece of paper you can tear?
He made the mistake that he ate
The rice of his associate And further was he out of touch
By putting it into his pouch Well, and the lady gave him five Like anyone who'd barely live
A lowlife's life is truly low Like I myself would not allow He still keeps asking me how are You? But I keep dropping my ware
He thinks we all would have a soul
Although the Word alone is foul
A dangerous intensity
That no one would intensify Nobody would want to go there Although they gladly stay caught here

But Not Hear

Imagist Poems

The HMS Brexit waiting to start off

Encircled by impassable water and the gripping rest of the continent;
her only way out seems to Norway or far-away Iceland.

Jan Schmiedel

In a Staircase of the SMAC

The immensity of five floors without an elevator; a feeling of freedom that is not even provided outside.

The Outist

We would like to include him since he is with us in here; but his mind seems to be outside far away.

Refugees welcomed

refugees, migrants, mobile people, asylum seekers – refuse or refused for refuge slow greed would grow flee – would scum feel free?

SCUM?!

scum, refuse, waste, trash, human garbage, useless stuff...

– do refugees feel so?

eels, mules, worms, geese, cod, frogs would welcome refugees

come or go but those humans!

intolerance and xenophobia led to the birth of refugees and their refusing them so flee from scum

free from greed... or weed we could see freedom

(if someone has to FLEE from FREEDOM, who is actually the real SCUM?!)

Attention – we are approaching the planet now!

Look at all those strange surroundings down there a kind of nature that is seen nowhere never before have I seen so much beauty down there we must go I think it's our duty it doesn't matter if there may be danger no, we should not feel as if we're a stranger -- guess we call the planet “Acrosticus IV”
